August Newsletter Summary

This newsletter announces upcoming training and development events and spotlights:

- New Hampshire 2017-2018 Volunteer Recognition
- Project Management Spotlight in the DoD

Article links point to the PMI New Hampshire Chapter Website so you can read them at your convenience.

Reminder - No August Chapter Meeting

The next Chapter Meeting will be held on TUESDAY, September 18 at the Portsmouth Country Club in Greenland.

2017-2018 Volunteers Recognized

"It takes a village", in this case, to run a PMI Chapter. At the July New Hampshire Chapter Meeting, volunteers were recognized with a certificate and free dinner. Volunteers were recognized for their work in supporting the Chapter. They included:

- 25 Members of the Board of Directors
- 7 Training Instructors and Mentors
- 5 Members of Special Committees
- 3 Members of the President-Elect Planning Committee
- 2 Editors of the New Hampshire Chapter Newsletter

Winding up the certificate presentations, Nora extended personal thanks to Steve Lundquist for his work as President.

Project Management Spotlight in Government Defense Contracting

If you are wondering what about Project Management as a Government Defense Contractor, take a look at the article by Dimitri Nazarenko, PMP. The Q&A format provides an excellent view of Project Management in this industry, including how the DoD adopted and standardized Project Management practices, project benefits of a collaborative leadership style, and the importance of flexibility as a Project Manager.

Professional Development Event - Running to Leadership

On October 24, the New Hampshire Chapter is offering another full Professional Development Day where you will expand your leadership horizons and earn 8 PDUs, 6 in Leadership and 2 in Strategic.

In this workshop, Anthony Reed, CPA, PMP, will explore ways for you to become a more effective manager and LEADER! It will include:

- Thinking like a leader - learning the language, talking the talk.

- How to motivate yourself and your team.
- Build a productive team by moving them out of their comfort zone.
- Coaching, Mentoring - build strong, tightly knit project teams.
- How-to ideas to partner with those whom you serve, walking the walk.
- Preview: PMI Global Congress Keynote on the topic "Running to Leadership".

The event will be held at the Puritan Room in Manchester. The member cost is $325 for members but if you sign up before the early bird deadline, the cost is $299. If you are ready to register, click the button.

Open the Door to Opportunity - Get Certified

The New Hampshire Chapter is planning two fall study groups to prepare for the Project Management Professional and Agile Certified Professional exams.

- PMP/CAPM Exam Prep Classes: 14 weeks, from August 16 to November 15 on Thursdays from 6:00-8:30 pm. For more information, visit the PMP/CAPM Study Groups page.
- Agile Certified Professional (ACP) Study Group: Seven weeks, from October 4 to November 15 on Thursdays from 6:00-8:30 pm. For more information, visit the Agile Certified Professional \(ACP\) Study Groups page.

We are still looking for instructors, assistants, and mentors for upcoming classes. If you would like to help certify other Project Managers as a study group leader, or if you would like information about the Jamie James scholarship, contact the Director of Education.

Save the Date for Business Analyst World

Save the date, but don't register yet. We will provide registration information for New Hampshire Chapter members when it becomes available.

The Summit will begin on October 15 at the Boston Marriott Burlington Hotel in Burlington. It is not just for Business Analysts. Sessions also target Project and Program Managers, PMO and Portfolio Managers, Product Design, Development, and IT Managers. Typical attendance is 2100 professionals who practice some aspect of Project Management. #psbawbos18

If you would like to attend as a New Hampshire Chapter volunteer, contact the Director of Community Relations.

Thank You from the New Hampshire Food Bank

In June, PMI New Hampshire Chapter members donated 24 lbs in non-perishable food items to the New Hampshire Food Bank.

Read more about how the Manchester Food Bank helps feed the hungry throughout New Hampshire. Visit the New Hampshire Food Bank website.

More Project Management Resources

You can find and search for Project Management articles of interest on the PM Morsels web page. To search for specific articles, you can search by keyword or category. For example, to find Project Management Spotlight articles, search for "spotlight".
